

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

This is the application for membership in the below named Local Common Wealth chapter. Prospective members are required to complete this form and submit to one of three networking group captains. Each network group is allowed two meetings (not including holidays) to deny new members. If no rejection is received, the applicant becomes a member.

GROUP _____ CHAPTER THE DIXIE BUSINESS NETWORK (501 C3) DATE _____ (Submittal Date)

Classification: Local Common Wealth does not assign classifications. Members give their own business, non-profit, student or institutional classification. If you are a restaurant, say restaurant. If you are an attorney, say attorney; if a handyman, say handyman.
Description: Members also describe the products or services of their business, non-profit or course of study if a student. If accepted into the network, members will be expected to conduct their business, service or study according to this description. Be as detailed as you need to be. The network may request that you rewrite this description either to enlarge its scope or to better refine its focus to work best within the network. You will then be asked to conduct business within the scope of this description. You may request to edit this upon the consent of the networking group.
